An exciting component of the revised standards is increased structure for districts who want it for K-5. The standards are sorted into grade level bands (K-2, 3-5), but also into grade level suggestions for teaching and learning. In addition, an appendix for a suggested K-5 scope & sequence for social studies offers a foundation for districts to open discussions about what they want their students to know and be able to do in social studies before leaving 5th grade. This workshop is intended for an elementary team of teachers.

Dig deep and build a quality elementary social studies program!

Pricing is $150 for individuals

Teams of four will be $400 and $100 for each additional team member.

(All registration confirmations will show a price of $150.

Team discounts will be applied at the time of billing.)

What children ask, say, or do about their identities and differences and the differences of others, are the wonderful "teachable moments" of anti-bias education. How we as educators respond to these opportunities is instrumental in helping young children navigate the complex issues of identity, diversity, prejudice, and power in their daily lives.

2/7/19
4:00 - 7:00

4/4/19
4:00 - 7:00

In addition to timely networking topics and updates, the 2018-19 Early Childhood Network series will explore principles of anti-bias education and effective classroom strategies aimed at helping young children build social-emotional competency, make families feel welcome and nurture children's' development of positive self-identity.

This series is designed to equip early educators to confidently, powerfully and competently responding to issues of diversity and elevate their capacity for helping young children make sense of the confusing and often emotionally charged messages they receive about themselves and others.

Please see attached flyer for details.

Increasing Student Engagement and Literacy Skills Through Energy

#310 | Henrickson (Environmental Education Series)

Location: CESA #4 - Leavitt Room

Agency Contact: Kaye Henrickson

CESA #4 is excited once again to partner with The Wisconsin Center for Environmental Education in providing a variety of professional learning opportunities to enhance the integration of environmental education into existing curricula across all content disciplines. Each workshop utilizes standards-based activities to advance place-based resources to engage learners. Each workshop 7 hours and will include collaboration and curriculum planning time. All workshop participants will receive ready-to-use hands-on lesson and numerous supporting resources. Teachers will receive a Certificate of Completion from the Wisconsin Center for Environmental Education upon successful completion of each workshop. All workshops support schools in their Green and Healthy Schools Wisconsin initiatives.

Infuse relevant information and various teaching methods into content area while increasing student engagement and energy literacy. This workshop will provide cross-curricular hands-on activities to develop STEM skills focused on energy concepts correlated to NGSS, Common Core, and WI Model Academic Standards. Activities include gathering and analyzing data, hands-on experimentation with energy audit tools, and exposure to current events and text sets. The workshop will include time for collaboration and lesson planning, and a variety of ready-to-use activities will be supplied so teachers can integrate relevant lessons right away. This workshop has the option of providing for elementary or high school teachers only, or for K-12 teachers combined.

Cost: $150 per person (Districts with #310 tech seats may use "1" seat per person to cover the registration fee. Please indicate this in the registration notes.)

All workshops support schools in their Green and Healthy Schools Wisconsin initiatives.

Empower students and staff to be part of the energy solution through relevant experimentation using cutting-edge technology. This workshop utilizes the school building as a teaching tool to explore energy efficiency concepts and evaluate energy use through hands-on discovery and advice from energy professionals. Participants develop energy-savings action plans that meet demand for project- and STEM-based learning and link to future career options. The workshop will include time for collaboration and lesson planning, and a variety of ready-to-use activities will be supplied so teachers can integrate relevant lessons right away. Recommended for teachers of grades 5-12 and schools undergoing energy management services.

Teachers will receive a Certificate of Completion from the Wisconsin Center for Environmental Education upon successful completion of each workshop. All workshops support schools in their Green and Healthy Schools Wisconsin initiatives.

Wisconsin's new Standards for Science and the Next Generation Science Standards both encourage a multifaceted approach to teaching and learning. This more holistic view also mirrors many of the goals of environmental education, making the environment a great context for learning science. In this workshop, we will dissect lessons from Project Learning Tree's Environmental Education Activity Guide and look for the crosscutting concepts, disciplinary core ideas, and science practices they contain. We will then take the next step of connecting these lessons to your existing curriculum to help create well-rounded science units that are ready for the upcoming school year.

Cost: $150 per person (Districts with #310 tech seats may use "1" seat per person to cover the registration fee. Please indicate this in the registration notes.)

Rick DuFour often said that there is no one person with enough knowledge, skill, or energy to singlehandedly lead a school or district on the PLC journey. Inherent in PLC practice is the idea of a guiding coalition to assist with this work. This year's Leadership Academy series is intended to develop school and district leaders' abilities to engage a leadership team in the work of building, deepening, and monitoring PLC practices.

2/21/19
8:30 - 11:00

Participants will be led through four learning events by Julie Schmidt, Superintendent of Kildeer Countryside SD (an Adlai Stevenson feeder school). We'll come together in October for a full day of learning at CESA #4 with Julie. She will connect with us virtually in November, return for a full day of face-to-face learning in January and wrap up with a virtual session in February.

The Leadership Academy is open to leaders from the district level down to the school level at a cost of $100 (made possible by a grant from DPI) which covers all events and materials.

- OCTOBER 29, 2018
- JANUARY 24, 2019
- MAY 9, 2019

An enduring culturally responsive multi-level system of support for ALL students requires planning with a framework in mind. Wisconsin RtI Center and Wisconsin PBIS Network regional technical assistance coordinators will facilitate a series of interactive sessions. Each morning will focus on integrating academic (RtI) and behavior (PBIS) systems into one cohesive multi-level system of support. Each afternoon will focus on specific technical assistance around separate behavior (PBIS) and academic (RtI) implementation. You are invited to attend the time and sessions that best meet your needs.

Outcome: Develop school/district development of an integrated culturally-responsive multi-level system of support.

Who Should Attend: All implementing schools within CESA 4.

Are you working really hard on student goals for reading and writing? Are your students “in” on those goals? How? Goal setting and conferring go hand in hand when it comes to reading and writing workshop. This pointed and guarded time for independent work during workshop can be bolstered by helping readers and writers set goals that THEY OWN! We will share resources for goal setting that make sense for the classroom and dig into strategies for connecting with readers and writers during conferring. This workshop is part of our “Workshop and” Series that aims to offer workshops related to the important work of teaching and learning in a workshop classroom for readers and writers.

Making social and emotional learning (SEL) skills part of the learning equation helps children succeed in school and life. With social and emotional skills, children can manage their feelings, build healthy relationships, and navigate social environments. When adults are supported by good policies and training, children develop the skills needed to prepare them for the world.

In May of 2018, the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction released the final draft of the long anticipated Wisconsin Social Emotional Learning \(SEL\) Competencies.

Now that the competencies are finalized, districts have been asking for assistance in figuring the next steps in implementing these competencies. Therefore, we have developed this workshop to give district teams the opportunity to unpack the competencies.

Participants will:

- Map what is currently being done in their building or district to teach the competencies
- Conduct a gap analysis between the competencies and what is currently being taught
- Create a plan for filling in the gaps
- Figure out how to assess if students have mastered the competencies
- See how some school districts in our state are implementing Social Emotional Learning

From day one, you will learn a range of practices you can use every day. You'll learn how to set high expectations while being supportive. You will practice how to provide direct feedback and how to ask questions that foster accountability. You will also learn the most effective methods to resolve common conflicts.

Safe and Healthy Schools and Communities

DAY 1: Participants will understand key concepts of restorative practices, including:

- Fundamental Hypothesis/Social Discipline Window
- Fair Process
- Psychology of Affect
- Restorative Practices Continuum

We devote the second day entirely to teaching attendees to facilitate restorative circles. Circles are an essential process for building social capital, resolving social problems and responding when harm occurs. Circles create a positive learning environment. You will learn by participating in circles with other attendees, taking turns to learn how to facilitate. By the end of the day, you will be prepared to return to your setting and run your first circle!

DAY 2: Participants will:

- Understand the purpose of the circle process and how circles can be used in your setting
- Learn the necessary skills to prepare and facilitate

What is SBIRT?

SBIRT offers an efficient, evidence-based, and comprehensive service to address selected behavioral health concerns among adolescents. The service begins with administering a standardized Screening instrument. For students who show moderate or high risk results, a Brief Intervention (BI) is conducted. The BI is delivered with motivational interviewing and is protocol-guided. For those students who show high risk concerns and who do not respond to the BI, a Referral to Treatment may be initiated.

Why SBIRT in Schools?

- Evidence-based for addressing student alcohol/drug involvement and evidence-informed for addressing a range of other behavioral concerns, including attendance, classroom behavior, and mental health
- Student-centered and strength-based
- Teens rate the service with high levels of satisfaction
- Provides a Tier II and Tier III practice with PBIS
- Response-to-Intervention can be ascertained by using baseline and follow-up screening results

Training Description:

- A requirement of registration is to complete a Pre-training Reading Assignment available at: www.wishschools.org/resources/schoolsbirt.cfm
- Initial Training (Day 1) — Overview of SBIRT, introduction to the requisite skills (Motivational Interviewing), and practice on delivering protocol-guided Brief Intervention services. Audiotape delivery of Brief Intervention.
- Adopt SBIRT Into Practice and Continue Implementation Planning — Staff deliver SBIRT services and track initial implementation. Staff meet with student services leadership to develop Implementation Plan.

Safe and Healthy Schools and Communities

- Follow-up Training (Day 2) — Staff receive individualized feedback from fidelity review of audiotape. Continue skill building, practice delivering SBIRT, and refining Implementation Plan. Audiotape delivery of Brief Intervention
- Implementation Coaching and Technical Assistance — Staff can participate in monthly implementation coaching calls.

This training is open to School SBIRT Implementation Cohort Schools and any other schools ready to implement SBIRT.

Schools play a critical role in meeting the needs of students, staff, families and often the local community during times of crisis. PREPaRE is the only comprehensive curriculum developed by school-based professionals with firsthand experience and formal training. The curriculum builds on existing personnel, resources, and programs; provides for sustainability; and can be adapted to individual school needs and size. The PREPaRE curriculum has been developed by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). For more information:

What is SBIRT?

SBIRT offers an efficient, evidence-based, and comprehensive service to address selected behavioral health concerns among adolescents. The service begins with administering a standardized Screening instrument. For students who show moderate or high risk results, a Brief Intervention (BI) is conducted. The BI is delivered with motivational interviewing and is protocol-guided. For those students who show high risk concerns and who do not respond to the BI, a Referral to Treatment may be initiated.

Why SBIRT in Schools?

- Evidence-based for addressing student alcohol/drug involvement and evidence-informed for addressing a range of other behavioral concerns, including attendance, classroom behavior, and mental health
- Student-centered and strength-based
- Teens rate the service with high levels of satisfaction
- Provides a Tier II and Tier III practice with PBIS
- Response-to-Intervention can be ascertained by using baseline and follow-up screening results

Training Description:

- A requirement of registration is to complete a Pre-training Reading Assignment available at: www.wishschools.org/resources/schoolsbirt.cfm
- Initial Training (Day 1) — Overview of SBIRT, introduction to the requisite skills (Motivational Interviewing), and practice on delivering protocol-guided Brief Intervention services. Audiotape delivery of Brief Intervention.
- Adopt SBIRT Into Practice and Continue Implementation Planning — Staff deliver SBIRT services and track initial implementation. Staff meet with student services leadership to develop Implementation Plan.
- Follow-up Training (Day 2) — Staff receive individualized feedback from fidelity review of audiotape. Continue skill building, practice delivering SBIRT, and refining Implementation Plan. Audiotape delivery of Brief Intervention
- Implementation Coaching and Technical Assistance — Staff can participate in monthly implementation coaching calls.

This training is open to School SBIRT Implementation Cohort Schools and any other schools ready to implement SBIRT.

From day one, you will learn a range of practices you can use every day. You'll learn how to set high expectations while being supportive. You will practice how to provide direct feedback and how to ask questions that foster accountability. You will also learn the most effective methods to resolve common conflicts.

DAY 1: Participants will understand key concepts of restorative practices, including:

- Fundamental Hypothesis/Social Discipline Window
- Fair Process
- Psychology of Affect
- Restorative Practices Continuum

We devote the second day entirely to teaching attendees to facilitate restorative circles. Circles are an essential process for building social capital, resolving social problems and responding when harm occurs. Circles create a positive learning environment. You will learn by participating in circles with other attendees, taking turns to learn how to facilitate. By the end of the day, you will be prepared to return to your setting and run your first circle!

DAY 2: Participants will:

- Understand the purpose of the circle process and how circles can be used in your setting
- Learn the necessary skills to prepare and facilitate restorative circles

School team training to implement - Advancing Adult Compassion Resilience: Toolkit for Schools

The CR Toolkit is a flexibly implemented set of resources to build awareness of compassion fatigue and strategies to increase compassion resilience in all staff from a system and individual perspective. This pre-conference will prepare you to share the information, activities and resources from the toolkit with staff in your school who work with youth and families who face complex challenges. The toolkit invites adults in schools to understand, recognize, and minimize the experience of compassion fatigue and to increase compassion resilience perspectives and skills.

The content of the CR Toolkit has been strongly informed by research and best practices related to resilience, positive psychology, compassion fatigue, organizational psychology, and mindfulness. The CR Toolkit was developed in partnership with the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, Rogers InHealth and a collaborative team of educators, community mental health practitioners and parents.

Registration for this pre-conference requires a team of 2-4 adults with at least one administrator and one staff facilitator. A second or third facilitator is welcome to join the team from the school staff or a community partner who will collaborate on toolkit implementation in your school. Maximum: 15 school teams of 2-4 people (those who will facilitate with staff and at least one administrator)

Each person must register individually.

Making social and emotional learning (SEL) skills part of the learning equation helps children succeed in school and life. With social and emotional skills, children can manage their feelings, build healthy relationships, and navigate social environments. When adults are supported by good policies and training, children develop the skills needed to prepare them for the world.

In May of 2018, the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction released the final draft of the long anticipated Wisconsin Social Emotional Learning \(SEL\) Competencies.

Now that the competencies are finalized, districts have been asking for assistance in figuring the next steps in implementing these competencies. Therefore, we have developed this workshop to give district teams the opportunity to unpack the competencies.

Participants will:

- Map what is currently being done in their building or district to teach the competencies
- Conduct a gap analysis between the competencies and what is currently being taught
- Create a plan for filling in the gaps
- Figure out how to assess if students have mastered the competencies
- See how some school districts in our state are implementing Social Emotional Learning

Among Wisconsin youth, suicide is the second leading cause of death and accounts for almost 1 in 5 of all deaths. State law requires school districts to provide specific classroom instruction in youth suicide prevention and to annually notify staff about the Department of Public Instruction's resources. The workshop helps participants understand the scope of youth suicide and what schools can do to reduce suicidal acts and thoughts among students. Participants learn about the prevalence of youth suicide, risk and protective factors, comprehensive prevention programs, and crisis intervention.

This workshop is not intended to train all school staff, but prepares teams of pupil services staff, health educators, and administrators to plan, prevent, and intervene at their schools. Action planning is integrated into all phases of the training program. A model workshop for all school staff is provided. Attendees are encouraged to bring their suicide crisis response plans for discussion and revision.

Participants will:

- Understand the prevalence of youth suicide
- Discuss legal requirements
- Gain knowledge and skills to improve classroom instruction at the middle and high school level
- Create a local action plan based on a 3-tiered prevention and intervention model to reduce suicide among youth

From day one, you will learn a range of practices you can use every day. You'll learn how to set high expectations while being supportive. You will practice how to provide direct feedback and how to ask questions that foster accountability. You will also learn the most effective methods to resolve common conflicts.

DAY 1: Participants will understand key concepts of restorative practices, including:

- Fundamental Hypothesis/Social Discipline Window
- Fair Process
- Psychology of Affect
- Restorative Practices Continuum

We devote the second day entirely to teaching attendees to facilitate restorative circles. Circles are an essential process for building social capital, resolving social problems and responding when harm occurs. Circles create a positive learning environment. You will learn by participating in circles with other attendees, taking turns to learn how to facilitate. By the end of the day, you will be prepared to return to your setting and run your first circle!

DAY 2: Participants will:

- Understand the purpose of the circle process and how circles can be used in your setting.
- Learn the necessary skills to prepare and facilitate

This interactive workshop will increase participant understanding of the CCR-IEP Process. The focus will be on the application of Steps 1, 2 and 3. Participants are strongly encouraged to attend in groups of at least two from the same district. Each district team must bring a copy of a student's IEP* to use as reference or have access to an IEP online to use during the training.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Participants will increase their understanding of the CCR IEP 5 Step Process and how to use it to develop IEPs
- Participants will build their capacity to apply Step 1 (Understand Achievement), Step 2 (Identify Effects of Disability and Disability Related Needs, and Step 3 (Develop Ambitious and Achievable Goals) so they can develop IEPs designed to improve access, engagement, and progress for students with IEPs
- Participants will increase their awareness of CCR-IEP resources available to support the development of CCR-IEPs

*Workshop participants are reminded of FERPA protections and are highly encouraged to redact personally identifiable information from IEPs they may happen to share with participants from other districts during workshop activities.
