District digital leaders often lead alone and need a space to network and learn from one another to meet the ever-changing digital learning needs of our teachers and students. The mission of CESA #4 Digital Leadership + Learning Professional Learning Network is to bring together digital learning leaders to learn and implement evidence-based digital leadership best practices.

Level 1 - Digital Leadership + Learning Professional Learning Network

Who should attend?

- Technology leaders (coaches and integration specialists)
- Lead technology educators (early adopters who demonstrate proficiencies in effective technology integration and instruction)
- Administrators charged with digital learning responsibilities (i.e. Digital Learning Plans, technology-related grant opportunities, IT management, certifications, and credentialing)

Level 1 Network includes:

- Quarterly face-to-face meetings at CESA #4 to connect and collaborate with other regional technology leaders
- Updates, grant opportunities, and resources from DPI, WEMTA, WETL, ISTE, and CoSN
- Registration fees waived for Digital Leadership + Learning workshops and events at CESA #4
- Professional Book Study
- Topics determined by needs assessment of participants to include Virtual Learning Time Planning, Blended Learning Best Practices, Keeping Kids Safe Online, Data and Cyber Security, etc.

Level 1A

Level 1A - Team Membership per district team (up to three) for all four network sessions

Level 1B

Level 1B - Individual Membership per person for all four network sessions

Level 2

Level 2 - In-District Digital Leadership + Learning Coaching

This service allows districts to design professional learning and coaching opportunities as identified by district strategic planning needs assessments. This service provides ISTE- and CoSN-certified digital learning CESA #4 consultants on site to assist, train, and support staff in purposeful, personalized digital learning proficiencies, implementation, and growth.

CESA #4 recognizes the expansion of Charter Schools in our region. This growth leads to the desire to connect, grow professional learning networks, and learn with one another. CESA #4 has two options to provide supports grounded in WRCCS, Wisconsin Resource Center for Charter Schools, Competencies. Whether your school is just beginning the Charter process or has been going strong, teams will walk away with resources and supports to integrate into your Charter efforts.
